Great China and Japan Tea Co., 729 7th St. N.W.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Yesterday Was the Occasion of Several Pretty Teas.

The Debuts of Miss Brewer and Miss Draper Were Pleasant Events

afternoon for the teas, and the West End was gay with passing equipages from 4 to 7. The debut tea of Miss Brewer, daughter of Justice and Mrs. Brewer, was a great success. The popularity of the genial jusyoung daughter made the occasion doubly pleasant. The house was most tastefully decorated with quantities of maidenhair fern and fine palms. The mantels of both parlors were banked with the maidenhair, and the surroundings were quite ideal when the guests commenced to assemble shortly after 4 o'clock. Mrs. Brewer, in an elegant toilet of black silk trimmed with point lace, presented each comer to her daughter, who wore a most becoming gown of pale yellow silk and chiffon. She carried one of the bouquets she received, of white rosebuds, while the rest of these fragrant tributes that came to her were piled around on the tables and cabinets.

Miss Harlan, in a pretty gray silk; Miss Mary Thomas of Boston, niece of the At-Mary Thomas of Boston, filece of the At-torney General, in white crepe, with a heavi-ly embroidered Eton jacket; Miss Cabell, in scarlet bengaline, and Miss Nina Ellet Cabell, in French gray crepe, were in the receiving party. In the dining room an abundant collation of all manner of good things was served.

an abundant collation of all manner of good things was served.

Among the hundreds present were Mrs. Olney, Sir Julian and Lady Pauncefote and daughters, Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, Justice and Mrs. Field, Justice and Mrs. Harlan, Justice and Mrs. Shiras, Justice and Mrs. Jackson, the Mexican minister and Mrs. Jackson, the Mexican minister and Mrs. Sutherland, Justice Brown, Senator and Mrs. Sutherland, Justice Brown, Senator and Mrs. Manderson, Judge and the Misses Strong, Mrs. and Miss Mabel Stewart, Mrs. and Miss Worthington, Mrs. and Miss Mattingly, Mrs. Tulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Cabell, Mr. and Mrs. James Hopkins, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. and Miss Brice, Solicitor General and Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. and Miss Brice, Solicitor General and Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Ffoulke, Mrs. Whittemore, Miss Lucy Corkhill, Mr. and Mrs. Cummins, Mrs. MacArthur, Miss Shields, Mr. Noyes, Mrs. and Miss Condit Smith, Mr. Landon Burchell and Miss Burchell, Mr. James Morrill, Miss Swan, Senator and Mrs. Davis and Mrs. and Miss Cockrell.

The coming out tea of Miss Draper, daughter of Representative Draper, was made the eccasion of a great gathering of the friends of that household yesterday afternoon. The Drapers have the former home of Mrs. Hazen, on 16th and K streets, which is admirably adapted to large entertainments, and its capabilities were well tested yesterday. Mrs. Draper welcomed her guests in a superb gown of blue and silver brocade. Miss Draper wore the daintiest of white chiffons trimmed prettily with pink rosebuds and pink ribbons. Mrs. Colwell poured the tea, Miss Ruggles the punch, and Miss Duncan, daughter of Mayor Duncan of Lexington, Ky., who is a guest of the house, and Miss Hopkins assisted in entertaining the company. The coming out tea of Miss Draper, daugh

Among those enjoying the occasion were Madame Romero, Representative and Mrs. Tom L. Johnson, Mrs. John G. Carlisle, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston, Mrs. Thomas Cox, the Misses Cox, Miss Jane Riggs, the Misses Boardman, the Misses Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, Miss Sherrill, Miss Steele, Mrs. and Miss Phenix, Representative and Mrs. Price of Louisiana, Miss Deering, Dr. Larkin Glazebrook, Miss Ruth Kerr, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Winlock, Miss Munroe, Miss Steele, Mr. Eveleth Whiting, Mrs. Loring, Mrs. and Miss Condit Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Mrs. Olney is in Boston, to remain a week, and will therefore be unable to receive on Wednesday next, the 27th instant. Mrs. Cockrell has cards out for a tea, 4 to 7, on Wednesday, December 27, at which Miss Cockrell will be introduced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. M. Curry have invitations out for a musicale January 9, when the Adamowski Quartet will perform. Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner G. Hubbard gave a dinner last night to meet Prof. and Mrs. Libbey of Princeton, lately returned from the Sandwich Islands. Mr. Gilbert Francis Dawson and Miss Mr. Gilbert Francis Dawson and Miss Margaret Levinia Baden were married yesterday at high noon by Rev. James W. Clark at the St. James' Episcopal Church, on Sth street between B and C streets northeast. The church was filled with the friends of the contracting parties. The bride wore a handsome traveling gown, and vas given away by her brother. The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Baden, and the best man was Mr. Geo. Rawlings. The ushers were Messrs. T. G. Wurdemann, Talbot Pulizzi, I. Mason Ford and Benson Stearns. The bridal couple left on an early train for Philadelphia, where they will remain during the Christmas holidays, after which they will be at home at 400 East Capitol street, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bowling of 1908 Vermont avenue northwest will start Tuesday for Prince William county. Va., to spend the rest of the holidays.

The marriage which was to have taken place between Mr. Holmes S. Cunningham of this city and Miss Maud Thompson of Richmend, Va., on January 3, 1894, has been postponed and the invitations which were issued are recalled.

Miss Fannie Kauffmann, who has been out of town for several weeks, has returned home. Mrs. B. Frank and family of Balti-more will spend the holidays with Mrs. C. Lieut, and Mrs. Qualtrough are at 2012 R street, and not at the Richmond, as was Miss Isabelle Simpson of Wilmington and Mrs. R. Simpson of Philadelphia are spend-ing the holidays with their cousins, Mr. Richard F. Jones and sister, Mrs. L. Herbert, No. 500 A street southeast. Mrs. H. J. Horn, 1813 Corcoran street, has issued cards for a reception on Christmas night, in honor of St. Nicholas, which promises to be a very pleasant affair. The wedding of Mr. L. D. M. Mowry and ises to be a very pleasant affair.

The wedding of Mr. L. D. M. Mowry and Miss Georgie H. Webster, daughter of Major W. H. Webster of the civil service commission, took place at St. John's Church last evening, and proved to be a most charming affair. All the seats in the church were comfortably filled with friends. Promptly at 8 o'clock the minister, followed by the groom and Mr. Francis Hitchcock, as best man, entered the body of the church from the side, and at the same time the bride entered from the front on the arm of her father, attired in a gown of elegant white silk, trimmed with rich lace. In her hair and around her neck sparkled some gems of rare beauty. She carried in her hand a large bunch of roses, and presented a charming picture. Miss Laurs W. Cottrell acted as maid of honor.

The altar was handsomely decorated with piants and cut flowers. M.George Tobin, Mr. G. M. Cary, Mr. James Longstreet and Mr. Jesse Rawlings acted as ushers. The presents received were many and costly. After the congratulations of a host of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mowry left for Charleston, S. C., the groom's former home, where they will remain until after the holidays. On their return they will occupy a suite of apartments at 1319 13th street, where they will be pleased to see their many friends.

Major J. K. Rardin, editor of the Charleston (Ill.) Daily News, accompanied by his wife, are the guests of O. J. Ricketts at 1015 H street northwest.

Street Venders and the Police.

The street venders of this city have good reason for appealing to the mayor to protect them against the police, to whose impositions they have long submitted in silence. These men take out licenses, but in self-defense they have found it necessary to make terms with the policemen on whose beats they wished to do business, for otherbeats they wished to do business, for otherwise the guardians of the peace would subject them to all sorts of annoyances and continually compel them to move on. The injustice of this is apparent. At last the poor venders, who make only a meager living at the best, have resolved to protest and assert their rights. The police have too long levied toil on street stands of all kinds, but the men with push carts have been peculiarly at their mercy. The matter may seem a ly at their mercy. The matter may seem a small one, but in reality it is a large one to those most interested. When they have bought their licenses they should be allowed to do business without being compelled to share their scanty profits with members of the police force.

Entertainment of the Central School Goes Off With Success. Nearly 900 people crowded the exhibi-tion hall at the Central High School this morning to hear the exercises that had been prepared in connection with the closing of school for the holidays.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the sections filed into the hall and occupied their customary chairs. Sections A and B of the third year and B of the second year marched in with large Christmas trees, appropriately decolarge Christmas trees, appropriately decorated, and took piaces in the rear part of the hall. The program was a very interesting one, including a violin solo, De Berriot's "Fantasie Ballet," by Mr. Joseph Finckel of '93, accompanied on the piano by Miss Myers; song, "When the Heart Is Young," by Miss Freeman; reading, "The Ruggies' Dinner Party," by Mrs. Walton, together with an appropriate sejection by success. The popularity of the genial justice and his attractive wife would have made this certain anyway, but, added to that, the introduction of their charming young daughter made the occasion doubly another reading, "Death of the Carol Bird," by Mrs. Walton, with vocal selection, "Christmas Carol," by the choir, and a violin solo, "Andante," from Mendelssohn's Concerto, by Mr. Joseph Finckel, accompanied by Miss Myers. Closing, Dr. Lane made a few remarks, wishing the pupils and their friends a merry Christmas and happy New Year.

The exhibition hall of the Eastern High School was crowded with pupils and their friends this morning at the closing exercises for the year 1893. Mr. Sites made a few remarks to the school, after which "Malvolio" Albert gave a short speech on few remarks to the school, after which "Malvolio" Albert gave a short speech on "Christmas." Miss Eichelberger recited a short plece, followed by a vocal selection by the Eastern High School Chorus, which concluded the program.

The pupils of the Business and Western schools were assembled in the exhibition halls and addressed by their respective principals.

KING. On December 20, 1893, at 4:30 p.m., BEN-JAMIN, beloved husband of Eliza A. King, aged eighty-two years. Farewell, dear father, a long farewell
For we shall meet no more Till we are raised with thee to dwell
On Zion's happy shore.

Our father is gone, lo, he is dead, The cold and lifeless clay Has made in dust its silent bed. And there it must decay.

But is he dead? No, no, he lives, His happy spirit files To heaven above and there receives The long expected prize.

Farewell, dear father, again farewell, Soon we shall rise to thos. And when we meet no tongue can tell How great our joys will be. BY HIS SON.

THE RED FLAG IS FLYING.

We are obliged to hang out the "dancer signal." The people have always been our friends, and they shall not be deceived, if we can help it.

HEED THE WARNING Many imitations and simulations of CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are being offered, and it is our duty to raise the "danger signal."

Tou cannot be too careful; you cannot scrutinise too closely. When you ask for CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS you want "C-A-T-E-R-S." Don't be careless; see that you get "C-A-R-T-E-R-S." Refuse all others; take nothing but the genuine CAE TER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. A POSITIVE CURE FOR SICK HEADACHE.
